Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday. Today at 2:30, you are invited to gather at Our Lady of Hope to pray with us as we celebrate the mercy of God as expressed to us in the death and resurrection of His son, and pray St. Faustina's Divine Mercy Chaplet together. Please come.

Also, due to the way in which liturgical feasts are hierarchically organized, both Holy Week and the Easter Octave superseded the feast of the Annunciation of Mary which, this year, is celebrated tomorrow. And, last but certainly not least, right here in Central New York, we will be treated to a celestial event when we witness a total eclipse of the sun by the moon beginning Monday at 3:15pm. I pray for a clear day since this will not happen again until we're all safely in the Kingdom.

I want to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for all that has transpired over the past few months. Thanks to all who participated in our many events of Lent. I hope you found them meaningful. Thanks to all who prepared soup for our five Soup-er Tuesdays. Thank you to the RCIA team for your enthusiastic preparation of our church's newest members. Thanks to all who donated toward the beautification of our sanctuaries for Easter. Thanks especially to Tom Andino and all who worked so hard in Music Ministry to make our celebrations so moving. We are indeed blessed by your gifts, shared.

May this week be a blessing to all, and may God push away the clouds so we all enjoy Monday's eclipse. God bless,

Fr. Michael

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar:

In today's gospel, Jesus teaches, "Blessed are those who have not seen and believe." Accepting someone as they are, without demanding they prove themselves or meet our expectations, created a rich relationship.
Without acceptance, a home is only a house and a family is just a group of housemates.

The Book & Bake Sale and Bottle & Can Drive fundraiser for our twin parish in Haiti is April 19-21.

We hope you can donate your refundable bottles and cans at that time. We are now accepting books, DVDs, CDs and games in good condition. Anything that is musty or has water damage should go in the trash. Please leave your donations at the church entrances when you come for Mass. Outside of those times, please call Kate (315-214-1569) to arrange a time for a drop off.

Thank you!

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA):

I apologize that the names of those who celebrated their Confirmation at the Easter Vigil were inadvertently left out of the bulletin last week. Please continue to pray for the following who were Confirmed and became fully initiated members of the Catholic Church: Alicia Cobb, Arenae Johnson, Gabriel Johnson, Jennifer Johnson, and Joshua Johnson.

April 28 at the 11am Mass we will welcome four more adults into our community as they celebrate Confirmation and become fully initiated members of the Catholic Church.

Is there someone in your family who is not Catholic but attends Mass with you, participates in parish activities, and is involved with our faith community? If so, are they interested in becoming Catholic? Have you invited that person to join you on your faith journey? For more information, please contact Bonnie Barker at 315-469-6600 ext 103 or email Bonnie at FFstmichaelstpeter@syradio.org or contact Father Michael.
